SPECIAL SERVICES AND FACILITIES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Disability Resource Center of the Office of the Dean of Students arranges academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, and services for students with permanent or temporary disabilities.

A Disability Resource Center program specialist works individually with a student to determine the most appropriate accommodations based on the student's relevant documentation and specific needs. Academic accommodations, auxiliary aids, and services are designed to allow students to fully participate in course activities, materials, and evaluations.

STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION

About Purdue University 2009–2010

Purdue University is recognized as one of the nation's finest higher education institutions. We are proud of this distinction and welcome inquiries about our programs and services. The following list contains a brief description of various important pieces of information about Purdue, Web sites to view this information, and addresses and phone numbers of the offices from which you may request the information. Additional information about specific programs and University services is available from the individual schools and institutional departments.

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY

Dear Purdue Student:

The Student Consumer Information Regulations of the United States Department of Education require universities to provide their students access to certain information to which they are entitled as consumers. In order to comply with this requirement, Purdue University is distributing the enclosed document to each enrolled student.

For each targeted area, the document includes a brief description; the office address where the information may be found; a phone number; and, where appropriate, a Web address. In addition, this information may be found on the Web at www.purdue.edu/consumer/

It is Purdue's intention to provide you with easy and complete access to any information you need as a student. Please feel free to contact any of the offices indicated at any time.

Sincerely,

France A. Córdoba
President

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. They include the right to: 1) inspect, review, and/or request an amendment to these records; 2) consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information in these records; 3) restrict disclosure of information designated as directory information that may be released without consent of the student; and 4) file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education for alleged failure by Purdue University to comply with FERPA requirements.

HEALTH INSURANCE PORTABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT (HIPAA)

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) rules create a framework to protect the medical privacy of patients and health plan members. In general, HIPAA privacy regulations allow covered health care providers and health plans to share information for the purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. Additional information regarding uses or disclosures of health information is described in the Notices of Privacy Practices.

Purdue University supports the goals of HIPAA and documents policies and procedures for securing protected health information in its "Compliance with HIPAA Privacy Regulations" policy. To view the compliance policy, visit www.purdue.edu/policies/pages/records/vi\_2\_1.html

Information regarding uses or disclosures of your health information is described in the Notices of Privacy Practices. Please access the appropriate URL below to view the "Notice of Privacy Practices" associated with a particular covered area.
